MALAYA - SINGAPORE

Singapore

April/June 1853

Unpaid letter from Singapore, Malaya, written on 20 April 1853, to Cadiz, Spain endorsed c/o Gibraltar. The letter was apparently privately carried to Alexandria, Egypt where a transit mark of MY20 1853 was applied. This may be because the Singapore post office did not quote a postage rate to Spain until after 1858 (via Southampton) or 1859 (via Gibraltar).

On arrival the letter appears to have been rated as "10" (pence, if in Gibraltar or reals, if in Cadiz) but there is no arrival mark.
